Summary of Incident: This First Information Report concerns a theft incident that occurred at the complainant's residence. The incident took place around 2:00 AM, when 2-3 unidentified individuals gained unauthorized entry. They specifically targeted the back gate, which they broke open using tools to unlock it. The perpetrators were observed wearing black masks and dark clothing, obscuring their identities. The complainant and their family were present at home during the time of the break-in. The individuals proceeded to steal money and various jewellery items from the premises. Subsequent to the theft, a black car was seen following the suspects as they departed the scene. An investigation has been initiated to identify the culprits and recover the stolen property.
